No to military attacks against Venezuela! We demand urgent international solidarity

The Unified Confederation of Workers of Venezuela (CUTV) condemns the cowardly attacks perpetrated against various locations in the Venezuelan capital region by military forces in the service of U.S. imperialism, in abominable violation of international law. In this regard, we urgently call upon the international class-conscious labor movement to speak out and condemn this ongoing military aggression, which is part of the escalating series of attacks against the Venezuelan people and all of Latin America and the Caribbean, in application of the criminal Trump corollary to the colonial Monroe Doctrine.

The CUTV calls on the workers of Venezuela to take measures to protect themselves and preserve their lives, and to cooperate in every way possible with the defense of the Venezuelan nation, which is the responsibility of the Republic's military forces.

As we have categorically stated on other occasions, it is up to the Venezuelan people to resolve the national crisis by exercising their right to self-determination, a principle we must defend against the ambitions of foreign powers vying for control of our oil wealth and other strategic resources.

The struggle for national and popular sovereignty, the right to self-determination, peace, and the upholding of the Constitution of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela are our guiding principles at this time.
